FOX RIVERSIDE THEATER FOUNDATION E-NEWSLETTER RED CARPET EDITION

Members and Guests Rock the Red Carpet, Hollywood Style

Fox Riverside Theater Foundation Premieres A Red Carpet Evening at the Fox

While the stars walked the famed red carpet at Hollywood and Highland on a rainy Oscar Sunday, the Fox Foundation hosted its own Red Carpet Hollywood awards-style party on February 22, complete with paparazzi, screaming fans, and commentary by a Joan Rivers look-alike.

While our guests enjoyed gourmet food prepared by Taste and cocktails by DLS Events, the Hollywood festivities unfolded on the big screen, interspersed with live student performances from the Foundation's Students at Broadway partner institutions.

Other highlights included KOLA radio personalities Jesse Duran and Irma Blanco, Elvis Presley and Marilyn Monroe look-alikes, movie scene vignettes, and a contest to predict the award winners for a chance to win season tickets for the 2015-16 Broadway in Riverside season.

Fundraising events such as this support the outreach programs of the nonprofit Fox Riverside Theater Foundation.

SAVE THE DATE! Plan to be there for next year's event on February 28, 2016.

Sponsor, Foundation Member, and Board Member Sue Johnson (Johnson Machinery) shares a moment with longtime friends and Sponsors James and Barbara Robinson (Security Bank of California).

Sponsors and Foundation Members Bud and Claudia Luppino (Bud's Tire and Wheel) and Foundation Members Tom and Lori Steele (Steele Financial Group) during a break from the awards telecast. Claudia is also on the Foundation's Board of Directors.

Sponsors Bret and Debbie Benninger strike a pose in "Casablanca"

Sponsor and Foundation Board Member Julio Figueroa (AT&T) greets the "paparazzi" with his wife, Carol, and son, Sebastian.

Arlington High School's Dance Team performed prior to the screening of the awards show and during commercial breaks.

Students from Christian Artists' Theater (CAT) joined the Foundation for on-stage performances and "screaming fans" duty as guests entered on the Red Carpet.
